

103rd (Lancashire Artillery Volunteers) Regiment RA (V)

— National Artillery Association Prizes

The Lord Mayor of London, Alderman Christopher Walford, presents the BP Trophy to the BC 216 Bty (V), Maj B C Gibson . . .

. . . the Dodds Trophy to Capt N Williamson, who receives it on behalf of 213 HQ Bty (V) . . .

. . . the HQ Bty Trophy to the BC 213 HQ Bty (V), Maj R P Farrell . . .

. . . and the Taurus Trophy to the BC 208 Bty (V), Maj P Wyche.

103 Regt RA (V) and their trophies.

The Lord Mayor and the Master Gunner with 208 Bty (V) at the Guildhall . . .

. . . with 213 HQ Bty (V) . . .

. . . and with 216 Bty (V).

On Saturday, 19 November 1994 the Battery Commanders, with almost 100 members of 103 Regt RA (V) travelled to the Guildhall, London to collect the prizes they had won during the National Artillery Association's Annual Competitions. The regiment won four of the five trophies contested between the Air Defence regiments. These are as follows:

BP Trophy — Best Air Defence Battery — 216 Bty.

Headquarters Battery Trophy — Best Air Defence Battery — 213 HQ Bty.

Dodds Trophy — General Military Skills — 213 HQ Bty.

Taurus Trophy — Special to Arm Skills — 208 Bty.

The prizes were presented by the Right Honourable The Lord Mayor of London, Alderman Christopher Walford, a former TA Gunner, and Mr Terry Stone, Managing Director of Shorts Missile Systems Ltd. The Master Gunner, Gen Sir Martin Farndale, attended the presentation.